CHAPTER: GENERAL ADMINISTRATION	Subject: Relationships with Other Agencies and Public Officials

I. PURPOSE

To require all correctional managers to coordinate planning efforts with community agencies.

II. AUTHORITY

NRS 209.351.

III. POLICY

All Wardens/designees should coordinate planning and consultation efforts with community related groups. While such cooperative efforts include a wide range of agencies, special efforts should be made to consult with law enforcement agencies, officers of the courts, community leaders, and members of college and university communities. Programs may vary depending on proximity of agencies to the institutions.

IV. DEFINITIONS

- A. Criminal Justice Association -- Includes, but is not limited to, police and sheriff associations, peace officer associations, and the American Correctional Association.
- B. Community Based Programs -- correctional program or activity including college Administration of Justice Programs, which is not funded by the Department of Prisons.

V. PROCEDURE

- A. Wardens should encourage staff to participate in local and national criminal justice associations.
- B. Cooperation with local criminal justice agencies should be developed by the following methods:
 - 1. Encouraging employees to participate with community agencies involved in activities related to the employees' institutional responsibilities.
 - 2. Sponsoring exchange tours with other law enforcement groups.
 - 3. Sharing information and coordinating efforts toward goals of mutual interest.

SUBJECT: Relationships with Other Agencies and Public Officials

C. Cooperation with Colleges and Universities includes the following:

1. Inviting members of college faculties to assist in institutional programming.
2. Encouraging staff members to serve as lecturers or consultants to the educational community.
3. Developing programs which offer selected students practicum programs in the institution.
4. Providing programming within institutions to encourage visitation by students involved in academic criminal justice programs.
